Centre College To Play Harvard Again Next Year

Sturdy Little Eleven From Britain's "Musteru Kentucky Gave Boston Such | Man" Sentenced To a Thrill That Date Will Be Reserved for It.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Centre col-ege will be on Harvard's 1921 sched-

The "yaller tornado" from Kaintucky proved such good business for Harvard that it is a certainty the teams will clash again next season. game about the same time next sea-

Centre will grab the game. No small coffege ever got so much publicity—deserving though it was—as Centre got out of her football match with Earvard. And the outcome of that game was satisfactory enough all around, for Harvard kept her slate clean, outside of those two touchdowns, and Centre was glorious in defeat.

The situation is most acute, not ready for a revolution vet." Centre will grab the game. No they had no means of knowing last fall, when the game was scheduled, what sort of a drawing card the 1929 Centre team would be. Therefore $6. one tooked like a pretty liberal offer.

As it happened, Centre got but a small per cent of the big gate, but she got something far more valuable—some $500,000 worth of publicity that she could have gotten in no other way.

"Bo" McMillin and some of his teammates who are starring for Centre this season will be back again next year if their present plans hold good, and if "Bo" is lucky enough to keep away from injuries that might cut into his playing days Harward will be more than glad to see yard will be more than glad to see the yellow and white eleven come back next year.

Boston college rooters have no love for fair Harvard, for, as you probably know. Harvard will have none of Boston college in the way of football. So it wasn't at all surprising to see several hundred Boston collegites roosting in the big horseshoe when Harvard met Centre and rooting their heads off for Centre, About 50 per cent, perhaps more, of that immense crowd was for Centre, so the boys from Kentucky really didn't feel like strangers in a strange land and were not overawed by the towering human cliffs that rose all around them. The booming cheers of their sympathizers helped them to put up Boston college rooters have no love them. The booming cheers of their sympathizers helped them to put up the great fight they made against superior beef and football training.

After Boston college had beaten Yale, the Boston players were discussing their victory in the dressing room when Tad Jones, Yale's coach, stalked into their presence. A hush fell over the Boston contingent, several of whom were telling in loud voices how good it felt to trample the blue into the turf.

JOE WELLING AND LEW TENDLER CITED

MILWAUKE Wis., Nov. 2.—Joe Welling and Lew Tendier were yesterday ordered to appear before the Wisconsin boxing commission on Nov. 22 and show cause why they should not be banished from the fight rings of this state for a year.

The order is the result of the bout in which both fighters participated here on Oct. 26. The character of the exhibition at that time was such that the boxing commission held up their share of the gate receipts pending an investigation. The money has since been paid. The boxing has since been paid. The boxing commission has no authority to permanently hold up purses, but it can prevent boxers from fighting in the state if it sees fit,

WEEGHMAN DROPPED FROM CUB DIRECTORS

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Charles H. Weeghman, for several years president of the Chicago National League Baseball club, was dropped from the directorate at the annual meeting of the stockholders yesterday. William L. Veeck, president of the club, was chosen in his stead. Other members of the board were elected. Selection of John J. Evers as manager of the club was approved.
